THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF STATISTICS AND PROGRAMME IMPLEMENTATION (SHRI G.K. A statement twenty Points and items coming under each Point is annexed (See below). The need for restructuring the existing Twenty Point Programme became inevitable due to (a) the introduction of several new policies and programmes by the Government of India and (b) keeping in view the challenges of the 21st Century with particular reference to economic reforms, liberalisation and globalisation of Indian economy.

(c) and (d) The main objectives of the Programme are to eradicate poverty and improve the quality of life of the common man. Achieving these objectives is a continuous process. The Twenty Point Programme is, therefore, still relevant.
